T LOVE RECEIVES BOARD CERTIFICATION

NEWTON, NJ, April 2019 – T Love, Integrated Holistic Health Therapist has been granted Board Certification by the American Association of Drugless Practitioners (AADP) through the American Alternative Medical Association (AAMA) renowned Board Certification program.

This certification recognizes Love for her work in the fields of cymatics, energy therapy, and energy and positive psychology. Her in-office evidence-based practice substantiate both practical and clinical-based competencies.

She is one of the first certified vibrational sound therapists in the United States and is also accredited to teach the proper administration of sound therapy through a variety of vibro-acoustical instruments among which include quartz crystal singing bowls, Tibetan bowls, bells, tuning forks, and the quartz crystal harp.

Love maintains a private practice centered on supporting patients through preventive treatments, emphasizing a natural, holistic approach to healthcare. With over 20 years of energy therapy experience she provides exceptional patient care incorporating science, bioenergetics, psychology and physiology as well as the mind, body, and spirit connection to help people reach optimal health. Blending all these disciplines together in her private practice, she is dedicated to serving the needs of her patients throughout Sussex County and the tri-state area.

As an advocate and educator of natural health, Love is an adjunct instructor who is frequently invited to teach the science behind energy and sound therapy modalities as part of college STEM programs.

She is also an international keynote speaker, a writer/contributing editor for various spiritual and health and wellness magazines, and certified yoga instructor.

Love, recognized as an expert in her field, is often called upon to speak on TV and radio regarding Energy Therapy, Sound Therapy, Positive and Energy Psychology, and Living a Life of Health and Well-Being. She has been featured in a Tree House Sound documentary on music and sound.

She is the founder/CEO of Sojihuggles Children's Foundation a non-profit dedicated to providing basic-necessities for underprivileged children and is the author of the children's book series "Santa's Tiniest Elves". All royalties from the sale of her books benefits Sojihuggles Children's Foundation.
